Friends of the Front Range Wildlife Refuges (FFRWR) is seeking proposals from industrial artists to create placemaking art at pedestrian entrances that lead into the Rocky Mountain Arsenal National Wildlife Refuge.

LOCATIONS

- 56th/Uvalde entrance
- 56th/Chambers entrance

PROJECT GOALS

- Create entrances that invite the public and encourage neighbors to view the Refuge as an inclusive, natural, and engaging space
- Any design and installation must incorporate the current gate, fencing, and signage. Designs must include natural motifs and must also include themes that are inclusive of and welcoming to the surrounding communities
